Disarmament and Non-Proliferation Education: YES, WE CAN!!!

Practical Ways and Tools to Raise Public Awareness through Education and its Role in Strengthening the NPT

May 8, 2009, 13:15-14:45
Conference Room 8,
United Nations Headquarters

Chair:
- Dr. William Potter, Director, James Martin Center for Nonproliferation Studies, Monterey Institute of International Studies

Opening remarks:
- Ambassador Sumio Tarui, Permanent Representative of Japan to the Conference on Disarmament

Speakers:
- Mr. Steven Lloyd Leeper, Chairman of the Hiroshima Peace Culture Foundation
- Hibakusha (Atomic Bomb Survivor) (TBC)
- Dr. Kathleen Sullivan, Consultant to the UN on Disarmament and Nonproliferation Education
- Mr. Nick Pickard, Head of Security Policy Department of the Foreign and Commonwealth Office, the United Kingdom
- Government official from Mexico (TBC)
- Dr. Vladimir Orlov, Founding Director, Center for Policy Studies in Russia (PIR)
- Mr. Vasileios Savvidis, Student from the Monterey Institute of International Studies, and UNODA Intern

“Education is, quite simply, peace building by another name.”
—Former United Nations Secretary General Kofi Annan

Co-sponsored by:
Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan
James Martin Center for Nonproliferation Studies at The Monterey Institute of International Studies
The UN Office for Disarmament Affairs, and
United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research (UNIDIR)

Refreshments will be provided.