

Thematic Summary of the Positions of the Members of the Non-Aligned Movement in Plenary Meeting Records of the 39 th General Conference of the International Atomic Energy Agency
Disarmament
Nuclear-Weapon States Obligations	(GC(39)/OR.7, Para 35) For its part, the Non-Aligned Movement (NAM) had called upon the nuclear-weapon States “to take positive steps towards fulfilling their obligations as regards the non-proliferation of nuclear weapons”. Also, the NAM members which were also parties to the NPT had demanded that the nuclear-weapon States honour the letter and spirit of the NPT and of the “Principles and Objectives for Nuclear Non-Proliferation and Disarmament”.
Disarmament and Nonproliferation	(GC(39)/OR.7, Para 35) For its part, the Non-Aligned Movement (NAM) had called upon the nuclear-weapon States “to take positive steps towards fulfilling their obligations as regards the non-proliferation of nuclear weapons”. Also, the NAM members which were also parties to the NPT had demanded that the nuclear-weapon States honour the letter and spirit of the NPT and of the “Principles and Objectives for Nuclear Non-Proliferation and Disarmament”.
Non-Proliferation Treaty Related
Disarmament Through the NPT	(GC(39)/OR.7, Para 35) For its part, the Non-Aligned Movement (NAM) had called upon the nuclear-weapon States “to take positive steps towards fulfilling their obligations as regards the non-proliferation of nuclear weapons”. Also, the NAM members which were also parties to the NPT had demanded that the nuclear-weapon States honour the letter and spirit of the NPT and of the “Principles and Objectives for Nuclear Non-Proliferation and Disarmament”.
1995 Review and Extension of the NPT	(GC(39)/OR.7, Para 35) For its part, the Non-Aligned Movement (NAM) had called upon the nuclear-weapon States “to take positive steps towards fulfilling their obligations as regards the non-proliferation of nuclear weapons”. Also, the NAM members which were also parties to the NPT had demanded that the nuclear-weapon States honour the letter and spirit of the NPT and of the “Principles and Objectives for Nuclear Non-Proliferation and Disarmament”.