
General Views on Disarmament and NAM Involvement

- (Final Document, Para 12) The Conference declares that the following continue to be the aims of non-alignment: … the ending of the arms race followed by universal disarmament...
- (Final Document, Para 13.d) The participants in the Conference... have accordingly agreed to take the following measures … to offer determined support to the intensification of the work of all international bodies concerned with problems of disarmament, particularly in the preparations for and implementation of the programme of the Disarmament Decade as an integral part of general and complete disarmament.

Nuclear Weapons States, Arms Race and Bilateral Disarmament

- (Final Document, Para 6) The continuing arms race is causing alarm and concern; it is rendering the possibility of a nuclear détente extremely precarious and is serving as a spur to limited wars. The balance of terror between the superpowers has not brought peace and security to the rest of the world.
- (Final Document, Para 6) There are, however, welcome signs of a growing détente between the power blocs but the abatement of the cold war has not yet resulted in the disintegration of the military blocs formed in the context of great power conflicts.

Disarmament and Development

- (Final Document, Page 81/82) The Heads of State or Government of non-aligned countries, united by common political and economic aspirations … recognizing that the massive investments in the economic and social progress of mankind can be made if agreements are reached to reduce expenditure on armaments...

---

Compiled by the NAM Project Task Force at the International Organizations and Nonproliferation Program (IONP) of the James Martin Center for Nonproliferation Studies (Monterey, California).

Last Updated: July 2012