¹ The Status of a State's participation in treaties and organizations is defined in terms of its membership of and adherence to international organizations, treaties and agreements. A State Party fulfilled and implemented domestic legislative legal practices to bring about the legal application of the Treaty on the government and other entities to which the Treaty is applicable, such as formal approval by parliament or legislative bodies, and the Treaty is formally declared to be applicable on the State Party, and the required legal instrument of ratification has been duly deposited with the depositary. A Signatory State refers to a State whose competent authority or representative has affixed its signature to a Treaty text thus indicating acceptance of the Treaty and a commitment not to undertake any actions that would undermine the purpose of the Treaty, according to the Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties, pending formal ratification.

² Membership requires ratification of the Chemical Weapons Convention.

³ India's signature and ratification required for the CTBT to enter into force.

⁴ India issued a statement upon its signature of the BTWC clarifying the Treaty's terms.

⁵ A set of voluntary confidence building measures agreed to at the Second Review Conference of the States party to the BTWC (1986) under Article V.

⁶ Submitted information on BWC CBMs for 1997, did not submit information from 1998-2006.

⁷ A number of States, including India, declared upon their accession to the Protocol that it would cease to be binding on them if their enemies, or the allies of their enemies, failed to respect the prohibitions of the Protocol.

⁸ Core members of the Proliferation Security Initiative include only Australia, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, the Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Spain, the United Kingdom, Canada, Norway, Russia, Singapore, and the United States, but many other States have issued statements of support in favor of it.
